Two BMW Motorsport Cup rounds so far during 2022

Round 1 – 20 March 2022 (MSCA Supersprint - Mallala)

- 8 Entrants from BMWDCSA
- Event was won by Paul Ray-Johnson
- Unfortunately, many of the regular competitors were not able to enter resulting in a smaller than normal field
- We welcomed a first-time competitor, and new club member Zach Grant-Cross who is driving Mario Fiore's E46
- Mario Fiore debuted a new E46

Round 2 – 3 April 2022 (TTM Regularity - Mallala)

Next Event – 1 May 2022 (MSCA Peter Hall Memorial 6 Hour Regularity Relay)

- After an on again-off again lead up to the event, it appears that BMWDCSA will have a team entered consisting of Craig Florance; Andrew Baohm; Phil Scadding and Andrew Rogers
- The Event will be conducted on the basis of a competition between Teams of Cars, the Event being aimed at Club level motor sport. The Event shall be run with Drivers from each of the teams completing timed laps against the clock to a maximum of 30% per Driver, of the total number of the teams' nominated laps
- It is fabulous event, and I am confident that the assembled team will be competitive.
- This does not form part of the BMW Cup series.

Next Motorsport Cup Round – Round 3 – 19 June 2022 (MSCA Supersprint – The Bend West Circuit)

- One of the BMW Cup series' two visit to Tailem Bend
- A driver favourite and will surely to be well attended.
- Entries will open late May.

The Cup Series Ladder

- After the first two rounds:
Phil Martin leads with 56 points, from Mario Fiore and then Julie Pfennig
